

Club #85, founded 1913

July 7th 2009

Attendance: Bertrand de Cardaillac, C  zar Dragutan, Patrick Lemoine, Steve Sadler, Barry Schmidt, George Shalhoub, Udo Stundner, Nemo Turner, Bob Velan, Drew Webster. Guest speakers: Ernie Rosa, Helio Galego.

In the absence of outgoing President Herman and at his request, PP Drew Webster officiated at the "pinning" ceremony of Nemo Turner and welcomed him as Club President 2009–2010.

President Nemo lost no time in presenting some of his ideas for the year ahead.

But first, President Nemo recalled the events of yesterday, July 6th, the 32nd annual, fund-raising golf tournament of this club. His remarks were met with warm applause for the efforts of golf committee chair, Carlo Pugliese.

President Nemo stressed the importance of public relations. It is for this reason that he wears a bright red jacket. He also spoke of his desire to increase membership and reviewed quickly four prospects whom members had brought to his attention. He plans to work on the speakers committee and already has names of confirmed speakers. He plans to keep the club website up-to-date. He queried the status of the Uganda orphan project.

President Nemo introduced our guest speakers from Sun Youth. Ernest Rosa is a veteran of 17 years with that organization. He is Director of Sport and Recreation/ Day Camp. His colleague, Helio Galego has accumulated 19 years with Sun Youth and is

Director of Crime Prevention. Very complete information about Sun Youth can be found at www.sunyouthorg.com

Of the 44 programs having to do with crime prevention, Rotarians were interested to learn that one of them makes cyclists aware they are supposed to stop for stop signs.

Sun Youth has entered an exciting period. It is in the process of buying its own building, the old Baron Byng high school. It should produce savings of $80,000 in warehouse rental and provide a larger area for a gym. Over a period of 20 years, the City of Montreal has provided $16million in support.

C  zar Dragutan expressed the thanks of Rotarians and presented each speaker with a certificate of appreciation.
